

RELATIVES TO SHARE
IN J. H. BARR'S ESTATE

Only the Cabanne Residence and Testators' Diamonds Left to His Wife.

BEQUESTS TO FOUR NUNS.

Surviving Partner in Barr & Widen Mercantile Agency Will Pay Heirs $20,000 for Interest in Business.

Joseph H. Barr, by his will, filed for probate yesterday, left to his wife, Emma Louise Barr, only the family residence at No. 588 Cabanne avenue, its furnishings and his diamond stud and diamond sleeve buttons.

He left the remainder of his estate, including $20,000 interest in the Barr & Widen Mercantile Agency Company, to relatives. The will was executed February 12, shortly before his death, which occurred at Hot Springs, Ark.

The residence property has a frontage of 54 feet 6 inches and extends 26 feet on Hamilton avenue.

It is left in trust to the Mercantile Trust Company. It may be sold at the request of Mrs. Barr and the proceeds invested. The income, in that event, is to be paid to the widow semi-annually, together with $500 of the principal, every year, until the amount is exhausted.

If any portion of the principal remains at the death of Mrs. Barr it is to be divided equally among the testator's brother, William T. Barr, of St. Louis, his sister, Anna A. Calkins, of Denver, Colo., and his nieces, Miss Mamie Shilling, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Nana Donohoe, of Newberg, Mo.

To his brother, William T. Barr, and his wife, Rosa M. Barr, he left property at No. 1717 Papin street as "tenants by the entirety." The property has a frontage of 25 feet.

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT.

The furniture and articles of personal property belonging to him in the house, which is occupied by his sister-in-law, the will recites, are left to her.

His wearing apparel, portraits of his father and mother, his watch and articles of jewelry in his residence, other than the diamond stud and sleeve buttons, are left to his brother, William T. Barr.

The will recites that an agreement was entered into between him and his partner, Joseph H. Widen, that on the death of one, the other should pay to the estate of the deceased $20,000 in ten annual payments, the first payment to fall due March 1 following the partner's death.

The will directs that these payments, as they are made, be divided equally among his brother, William T. Barr, his sister, Anna A. Calkins, and his nieces, Mamie Shilling and Nana Donohoe.

The will also directs that a mortgage be held on the property of his sister, Anna A. Calkins, at No. 314 West Twenty-sixth avenue, in Denver, be surrendered to her and a clear title to the property be given to her.

The remainder of the estate is left to the Mercantile Trust Company in trust. His sister, Mrs. Barr, is named as trustee.

One hundred dollars each is to be paid to his sister, Mrs. Barr, and his nieces, Mamie Shilling and Nana Donohoe, at the death of the testator, and the balance of the estate is to be paid to the Mercantile Trust Company.

They are to receive the income and $1,000 of the principal each, annually, until the residue is exhausted.

Buy Bee Bazaar Day to-day. Assorted chocolates, 10c a lb.

STREET CAR COLLIDES WITH A FIRE TRUCK.

Firemen Schweigert and Pohlman Compelled to Jump to Save Their Lives.

Truck No. 8 of the Fire Department was struck by a street car as it dashed from the engine-house at Twentieth street and Washington avenue yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock.

The firemen who were on the truck were compelled to jump to save their lives. The car was No. 123 of the Spaulding avenue line and Motorman No. 123 was in charge. It is said that the motorman attempted to jump to save his life.

The truckmen were answering a call from Eighteenth and Lucas avenue. A red light was flashed in front of the engine-house to warn approaching cars of vehicles that the firemen were coming out.

Just as the truck reached the street and was turning east, the car, also eastbound, came along at a high rate of speed. The truck was not stopped by the collision, but three of the ladders were thrown to the street.

Fireman Jack Schweigert and Carl Pohlman, son of the former, were on the truck. Seeing their danger they jumped to the street.

Truck No. 8 is the same on which firemen Ben Letson and John Lese, who died from their injuries, were riding to a fire when struck by a street car at Twentieth and Olive streets two weeks ago. Motorman Schick, who was in charge of the Olive street car, is under charges preferred by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton.

Buying Iowa Horses.

Armstrong, Mo., Feb. 26.—The scarcity of work horses in this county has compelled Howard County farmers to go to Western Iowa to buy draft horses to replace the ones sold to Southern buyers. Several wealthy farmers of this county have purchased a large number of draft horses from that State to be used principally for breeding purposes.

District Methodist Conference.

Armstrong, Mo., Feb. 26.—The District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene in this city March 24 and hold a three days session. The opening sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Robert W. Allen. A large assemblage of prominent ministers is expected.

If Women Only Knew

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to St. Louis Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause of backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, etc., they would use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure it. Mrs. A. C. Crook of 147 N. Tenth street says: "During the six or seven months my back ached I used at least a dozen standard remedies guaranteed to cure kidney complaint or backache, which came from the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cured it. If the first dose of Doan's Kidney Pills secured it, I would not have hesitated to use it. I never would have been so long in getting it. I found it in the house, for I had found it unnecessary to take a second box. Since I completed the first box, I have not been a symptom of backache. Doan's Kidney Pills with just as positive results as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 5c. Doan's Kidney Pills, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitutes.

CITY HALL WOMEN STENOGRAPHERS
JOIN CRUSADE AGAINST SPITTING.

Reading from left to right, standing: Misses Josephine Byrne, Rose Elsler and Josephine Chapman, stenographers in the offices of Supervisor of City Lighting, President of the Board of Public Improvements and City Comptroller, respectively.

Sitting: Misses Valley Shaw, Marguerite Wertz and Frances Pursell, stenographers in the offices of Sewer Commissioner, Coroner and Water Commissioner, respectively.

Women stenographers employed at the City Hall have resolved that, after Monday, there must be no more spitting on the floors of that building. The stenographers have formed an alliance, and intend to see that the provisions of the new law are strictly enforced.

During the hours that the City Hall is open for business thousands of persons come and go. The majority are men, and it is the women who are most annoyed by the spitting of those in the corridors or on the stairs.

For some time the women employed there have been annoyed by expectations on the part of the several city officials. They have complained about the matter, but the nuisance has increased rather than decreased.

Since the anti-spitting ordinance was signed by Mayor Wells they have decided to sue with one another and have decided that, in the City Hall at least, it must be strictly enforced.

Cuspidors are provided in the corridors, as well as in the offices, and the stenographers believe that if the matter is brought to the attention of those in charge of the building that visitors and others will be compelled to use these receptacles.

TIME FOR FEMINE PROTEST.

Regarding the anti-spitting crusade yesterday, Miss Frances Pursell, stenographer in the office of the Coroner, said:

"As a general thing, I do not think it is proper for women to take too prominent a part in matters of this kind, but in this instance I believe every woman should interest herself in the enforcement of this ordinance."

"Aside from sanitary and civic improvement features, we are the greatest sufferers from the present condition of the sidewalks and floors of public buildings."

While, of course, a business woman is not expected to wear dresses with long trains, still in the majority of cases her skirts touch the floor and consequently come in contact with whatever dirt there is on it. For this reason you will find that the women are arrayed solidly in support of the ordinance."

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

"At the time I came to work in the morning and return to my home at night," she said, "the cars are always crowded, and it is difficult for the man to obtain a seat. Often I am annoyed by constant expectorating, but it is impossible to change my seat, and I have been compelled to stand. I do not like to request a man to desist."

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

Others who are interested in the agitation are: Miss Margaret Wertz, the Coroner's stenographer; Miss Mary Shaw, Mayor Wells's stenographer; and Miss Mary Shaw, the Assessor and Collector of Water Rates, who believes that the ordinance will be of great benefit to St. Louis. She has been greatly inconvenienced by the presence of the nuisance in the street cars when going to and from the City Hall.

UNSEATING OF BUTLER
ATTENDED BY EXCITING
SCENES IN CONGRESS.

Continued From Page One.

RESOLUTION TO FILIBUSTER.

ADOPTED BY DEMOCRATS.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The House Democratic caucus today adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we shall resist by all honorable means at our command the unseating of Contestee Butler and the seating of Contestant Wagoner, being convinced that the Republican managers in the House have determined to disregard the large majority of 630 votes by which Contestee Butler was returned and to dispose of the contest arbitrarily in blind partisanship, without reference to its merits and without effort to do justice to the merits of the case."

That, by way of emphasizing our condemnation of partisan disregard of the rights of the minority and this wanton outrage, lacking even the sorry excuse of pretended partisan necessity, and to prevent the passage of vicious measures which there is every reason for believing, the majority have planned to rush through the House in the confusion incident to the ending of the final session of an expiring Congress, we pledge ourselves to stand together in support of the demand for the presence of a quorum at all times for the transaction of business, and a recorded yeas and nays upon everything upon which the House shall act up to the moment of final adjournment."

Indifference, or lack of care of the clerks in any one of the thousand ways that might have occurred, and frequently do occur honestly, the whole precedent is disfranchised. Hundreds of men, of whose honesty there is no question, are disfranchised, and the seat is given to a man who comes here over 6,000 votes short of his competitor.

"This is a very simple proceeding, if gentlemen have any regard for the honesty and decency in the matter. Of course, if the only object is to take the seat and throw a bombshell out because it is supposed there are votes enough to throw him out, the proceeding is very well understood."

WHY GO THROUGH TRAVESTY OF ARGUING THE CASE.

"But why should the committee, if that be the case, go through the travesty of an argument or talk about legal principles or talk about the sacredness of the ballot, about the committee trying to ascertain who is elected, when every man who knows a very little about the case must know a certainty that Wagoner is not elected?"

"Wagoner came on the Republican ballot, and I defy any gentleman to contradict it, when he had no right upon it at all; he had no right anywhere in that election except upon a ticket by himself, with no other candidate on the ballot, but he is put on the Republican ticket."

Mr. Olmstead: "Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. DeArmond: "No, of course, I cannot yield, unless the gentleman gives me time. The impertinence and assumption and assurance and gall, the want of a sense of justice in the man trying to rob me of my seat, the want of gentlemen on this side, and yet by frivolous and childish questions taking the time of a man who has only nine minutes. (Laughter and applause on the Democratic side) is utterly beyond the comprehension of the gentleman from Pennsylvania, of course. (Laughter.) Many things are much beyond his intelligence."

"Now, here is a man who was not nominated; here is a man whose party did not put him forward; here is a man who had no place rightfully upon his party's ticket, and yet, in a spirit of fairness and justice, in generosity that comes from being generous, he is put upon the Republican ballot, where he gets the benefit of the votes of the Republican party which cast him out and repudiated him when they came to the matter of nomination."

"And now we have here the farce, the shameful spectacle of an attempt to put a man into the seat who has no right to it, to draw two millions, to draw two allowances for stationery."

NO OTHER CASE IN HISTORY.

SO BASE, SO LOW AND MEAN.

"In all the proceedings, not only in the United States Congress, but the whole world over—in history of election contests—no other case so base, so low, so mean, showing such utter want of decency and all pretense of anything excepting baseness and wrong—can be found; nothing in baseness and hypocrisy, nothing in meanness and deceit, nothing in bitter partisanship and enmity, to match or to be compared with this case."

"Take the seat if you choose to take it; steal it if you choose to steal it. But do not expect me to yield my seat to a man who has no right to it. Throw upon the people of that district who twice have returned Mr. Butler to Congress the representation of a man they have repudiated. Bring this man in here, associate with him upon terms of equality for the remaining days of this session, and let him sit in the seat of a man not at all entitled to the seat, but a man fully entitled to political fellowship with those who would steal it for him—the recipient of stolen goods placed upon a pedestal with those who stole the goods."

The gentlemen on the other side suggest that time has been frittered away. Aye, the time has been well employed which has been used to delay the hour of the perpetration, the completion, of this iniquity. And let gentlemen understand that until the fourth day of March—until the Speaker from the chair declares this House adjourned sine die—there will be done on this side whatever can be done decently, under the rules of the House, in accordance with appropriate legislative procedure, to carry to the country the fact, to stamp upon the record, to show to future generations that we are not going to tolerate or condone this kind of farce."

REPUBLICANS WILL ATTEMPT TO ADAPT SPECIAL RULES.

The Republican leaders, in deciding to force this case to a vote, did so with a perfect realization of the embarrassments which would follow if the Democrats carried out their filibustering threat, and they have arranged a programme to reduce the minority's obstructive power to a minimum as far as the appropriation bills are concerned.

This is to be accomplished by a special rule, which has been tentatively prepared, by which all the preliminary parliamentary steps for getting appropriation bills with Senate amendments into conference can be cut off. But later this afternoon Republicans interested in the omnibus public-building bill threatened to vote against the rule, unless it made provision for the bill. This disturbing factor in the situation was not straightened out to-night.

The Republican programme also includes a proposition to continue the legislative day of to-day until noon, March 4, in order to obviate the long and tedious work of approving the journal against filibustering tactics.

A recess was taken to-night until 11 o'clock to-morrow, and a rule has been prepared which hereafter will give a motion to recess precedence over a motion to adjourn.

Under the operation of these drastic measures, it is believed that none of the appropriation bills or other necessary measures will be jeopardized, but the present situation undoubtedly slows the death knell of many minor measures.

APPOINTMENT CAME TOO LATE.

Charles F. Woodson Died Before the News Was Received.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

St. Charles, Mo., Feb. 26.—The press dispatches from Washington, D. C., this morning announced the appointment of Charles F. Woodson of O'Fallon, Mo., to the position of teacher in an Indian school at Fort Shaw, Mont. The appointment comes too late, as Mr. Woodson died last Saturday morning.

He was 29 years old and was in every way qualified to fill the position to which he was appointed. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Woodson.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE
SATURDAY THE LAST DAY
THE GREAT DISCOUNT SALE OF PIANOS

Work of Tearing Down Emilie Building Has Begun—Pianos Going at Nearly Half-Price—Easy Payments.

If the saving of a very goodly sum of money in your piano purchase is an object, then you should make haste to attend this sale. Already there are those who were disappointed in finding particular styles they looked at previously, with a "sold" tag on them, or delivered to other purchasers. There's a very good selection yet, but the time of the sale is limited, as the tearing down of the Emilie building begins March 1st, and the pianos are limited at these cut-in-two prices.

NUMEROUS GOOD MAKES FROM WHICH TO SELECT.

THIS GOOD $275 PIANO, NOW ONLY $145

FOLLOWING ARE EXAMPLES OF THE MANY BARGAINS IN NEW PIANOS.

2 $200 Uprights, now....$115 to $135

4 $225 Uprights, now....$125 to $140

3 $275 Uprights, now....$140 to $165

7 $350 Uprights, now....$185 to $235

4 $400 Uprights, now....$235 to $265

3 $450 Uprights, now....$285 to $298

5 $500 Uprights, now....$315 to $347

TERMS—$10 to $25 Cash, $7 to $10 per month.

Cash or Payments, $5 Monthly.

GOOD SQUARE PIANOS, $25, $40 TO $60, CASH OR PAYMENTS, $3 TO $5 MONTHLY.

OPEN EVENINGS.

KIESELHORST PIANO CO., Established 1879.

914 Olive Street.

Perfect June weather, no big coal bills, When you go there, travel on the California Limited: for seven seasons the choice of travelers who require perfection of service.

Ladies will be pleased with the cozy compartment Pullmans and sunny observation parlor. In later are fashion journals, monthly magazines, stationery and a library. In buffet-smoking gentlemen will find daily market reports, latest newspapers, and an expert barber. Opportunity for a neighborly chat or smoke.

The six o'clock dinner—Harvey's best—is a social delight. The tables are resplendent with cut glass and silver. Electricity furnishes a rich flood of light. Every delicacy on the menu.

Kansas City to Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco. Books about California tour and Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Abilene, Topeka & Santa Fe

St. Elmo's Regular Never Fails.

ST. ELMO'S REGULATOR Never Fails.

ST. ELMO'S REGULATOR Never Fails.

ST. ELMO'S REGULATOR Never Fails.